Business & Professional Skills & Etiquette

Teresa P. J. Armstrong, PCC

Wednesday, 19 September 2018

6:00 pm–8:00 pm

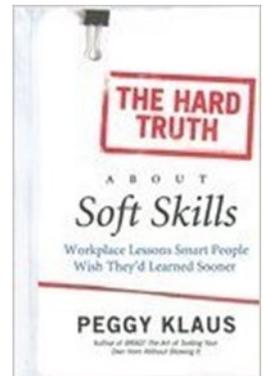

Presentation: What is Professionalism? One of the most foundational challenges with professionalism as a competency is we recognize when it doesn't happen, but it is more complex to define. There are some obvious do's and don'ts of behaving professionally at work. According to a "Professionalism in the Workplace" study, there are four leading indicators of professionalism - Interpersonal Skills, Work Ethic, Appearance, and Communication Skills. Excellence is at the core of it all. Let's explore your tool kit for turning up your Professionalism! This action plan can be further filled out by attending the follow on Workshop.

Speaker: Teresa P. J. Armstrong, has 20 years of leadership development experience and as a credentialed International Coach Federation Professional Certified Coach she has extensive knowledge of leadership effectiveness, talent development, and team building, and focuses on mid-career to senior professionals. Teresa facilitates strategic sessions to focus on mission/vision, leadership, and role clarity. She has successfully facilitated/coached numerous individuals and teams and conducts leader transition sessions to accelerate leader readiness and team congruence.

Teresa has presented at various organizations including the Women of Color conference, Black Engineer of the Year and NSBE. Her current and past consulting/coaching clients include AHC Inc., Maryland Paving, Northrop Grumman Corporation, Marriott International, and the USO.
